

6516208169.txt

I see this as first admendment issue, the government limiting what we can and cannot hear on paid services. In the transportation industry, the weather and traffic channel provides interstate truckers information so they can decide to change routes, adjust speed and caution, or not drive at all. Thus this will reduce traffic conjection and accidents. Let the broadcaster compete and improve thier services, eliminating some important satellite radio services is not the answer.